Course Description

The Emerging Leader Fellowship is a 5-month, joint program between Synova Associates and the National Association of Neonatal Nurses. The purpose of the Emerging Leader Fellowship is to provide nurses a unique learning structure devised to maximize their leadership potential personally and professionally. Skills attained will prepare participants to thrive in today's fast-paced, rapidly evolving healthcare environment. Participants will develop and implement a project designed to improve outcomes in their various healthcare settings.

Program Objectives

Upon successful completion of this program, the fellow will be able to:

1. Unleash leadership potential, recognizing the uniqueness of each individual's experience, strengths, and way of BEING
2. Create an environment that fosters
 - Learning from each other
 - Authenticity and trust
 - Meaningful and truthful conversations that explore the core of individual leaders
3. 'Keep it real'; Be comfortable to get 'messy' in the realities of leadership
4. Consciously explore the 'who', (and the 'what') of leadership
5. Through this journey, participants will discover the best in themselves that enable them to thrive and flourish in a leadership role
6. Develop competencies for leadership opportunities, inclusive of all nurses, in every role, in every care delivery setting and professional associations
7. Demonstrate leadership competencies through a QI / Program Development project
8. Apply leadership practices and ways of BEING to share in group coaching sessions

Fellow Expectations

1. Fellows are encouraged to 'show up' fully present, willfully engaged, and free of distractions, visually present to each other
2. Fellows are committed to open, honest, and authentic interactions, actively participating in a psychologically safe, shared learning and discovery environment.
3. Fellows are committed to their growth and development, dedicating the time for reflection and preparation, in and between sessions, to foster a greater understanding of leadership competencies, practices and ways of BEING, that enable and empower their best leader self.
4. Fellows will define their best leader self, setting personal expectations of what they strive to realize through the program.
5. Fellows will clearly communicate their 'why' in participating, bringing clarity to their meaningfulness of their intentions.

6. Fellows will complete a Quality Improvement (QI) project utilizing the Model for Improvement from the Institute for Healthcare Improvement that will showcase leadership growth
 - QI project will:
 - i. Explore a current issue for improvement
 - ii. Demonstrate leadership role in the change / improvement process
 - iii. Present how issue was addressed
 - iv. Outline outcomes that were achieved
7. To honor the objectives, expectations, and experience for each participant
 - Attendance is expected at all sessions
 - i. Absences are understandable and will be granted, as needed, for up to 2 sessions
 - ii. Attendance is encouraged and supported by their organizational sponsor
 - Complete all activities associated with each topic presentation
8. Participants must be a member of NANN in good standing throughout the duration of the Emerging Leader Fellowship

Fellowship Program Structure

The program structure is designed to be interactive and engaging each week

- Week 1 - Webinar / discussion
- Week 2 - Coaching sessions with participants split into 2 groups
- Week 3 – Complete assignments / reflections in LMS
- Group Me to facilitate connections throughout the program at the frequency set by participants
